

DDIPA 2.1 – Jared Boogaloo

DDIPA 2.1 - Jared Boogaloo is the continuation of the „official“ EDDI beer. The label was designed by olof.

Tastewise it is on the bitter side but has a refreshing aftertaste

Hail Mary Vardigan

Hail Mary Vardigan is a Porter with added rosemary as aromatic. For the bad wordplay, we dedicated this beer to Mary Vardigan.

Tastewise it's a well rounded porter with noticeable hints of rosemary. It somewhat resembles a jus.

Hail Mary Vardigan
Rosemary Porter

Hopfenpold

Hopfenpold is a fine dark IPA. It is dedicated to a friend of the brewers who has hopfarms in his family and sponsored the hercules hops for this beer.

No passion for Interoperability

NEIPA

No passion for Interoperability

The CDI Workgroup asked us if we would dedicate a beer to them as well. We took the liberty to have some fun with the interoperability theme of this workgroup when designing this label.

Smoked Berry Radler

Smoked Berry Radler is dedicated to Barry T. Radler.

This beer is served as radler (mixed with lemonade) to compensate a happy little accident during brewing. It has strong notes of baked apple.

Sir, this is a Venti!

Sir, this is a Venti is a variation of a well known internet meme. It also takes a humorous shot at a certain coffee brand.

Tastewise this porter has nice notes of roasted coffee.

Tastewise this beer tastes like a classic NEIPA with some hints of tropical fruits. It was intended to have a strong passion fruit taste which didn't work out hence its name:

To further underline the missing Interoperability there are 2 incompatible labels for this beer.

Sir, this is a Wendy's

Sir, this is a Wendy's is dedicated to Wendy Thomas. It also references the well known meme.

Tastewise this porter has hints of whiskey.

Vilda Hilda

Vilda Hilda is dedicated to Hilde Orten. The Beer is a Skogsöl which means forest beer.

Tastewise this beer has added juniper berries as well as well orange blossom. It has a very fruity taste with a hint of gin.

Wolfgang Wiess

Wolfgang Wiess is dedicated to Wolfgang Zenk-Möltgen. The label took inspiration from a certain german party. The beer is a Wiess which is a Kölsch which wasn't brewed in Cologne.

Tastewise it's more plain with a slight hint of hops in the aftertaste.

(X) Wolfgang Wiess